GERMAN FIRST AND SECOND LINE TRENCHES ARE OBLITERATED BY DARING ATTACKS OF AMERICANS

THE AMERICAN FIGHTER HAS WEAKNESS FOR APPLE PIE

THE WEAKNESS OF "SAMITY" (Associated Press Cable)

French bakers with shops near the American training camps over there do a rushing business making that indigestible, delectable apple pie. Long before the doors of the small shops open there is usually a line of Uncle Sam's boys intent upon devouring many slices of apple pie.

NAPLES IS RAIDED BY AUSTRIAN AIRMEN

City Is 300 Miles from Italian-Teuton Line, and 150 Miles from Enemy Territory.

Heavy Artillery Is Active on Western Front, but No Infantry Is in Action.

Austrians Endeavor to Cross Piave. Turks Forced Back.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Naples, which is more than three hundred miles south of the Italian-German battle lines, and two hundred and fifty miles from enemy territory, was raided early this morning by German aviators, twenty bombs being dropped in a residential section. Victims of the attack included seven occupants of a hospital.

Heavy artillery firing has been proceeding at various points along the French, British and German battle lines in France and Belgium, but there has been no infantry action of importance since Saturday.

In Italy there has been operations of some importance. The Austrians apparently made an attempt yesterday to cross the Piave River opposite Fagare, as the Italian War Office today reports the destruction by Italian batteries of boats and rafts on the Piave River at this point.

There has been a further retirement by the Turks in Mesopotamia. The Turkish garrison evacuated Hit before the British advance, and fell back seven miles upstream.

The Spanish Premier, Marquis de Alhuchemas, who Saturday presented the resignation of the Cabinet and declined to form a new ministry, has yielded to the arguments of King Alfonso and agreed to continue in office according to a Madrid dispatch. No changes will be made in the Cabinet.

MEMBER OF 166 GIVEN DISCHARGE

East Liverpool, O., March 11. —(Associated Press Dispatch)—Merle Bishop, aged 16, has returned home after four months service with the Rainbow Division on the western front, after having received an honorable discharge on account of his youth. He spent ten days in the third line trench on the American sector.

Bishop was one of the fourteen East Liverpool boys transferred to the Rainbow Division from the old Tenth Ohio Infantry, which he joined as a member of Company E last May.

FEW MEN TIE UP BIG PLANT

By Associated Press Dispatch. Fall River, Mass., March 11.—Five thousand cotton mill operators in this city are idle today, according to figures compiled, because of a strike of three hundred and twenty-four Union firemen, whose demands for shorter hours and a closed shop were rejected last week by the Manufacturers' Association.

AMERICAN ARTILLERY PREPARES THE WAY, AND AT MIDNIGHT HOUR SAMMIES GO OVER THE TOP, AND CARRY WAR INTO HUN LINES

Attacking Americans Enter Second Lines 600 Yards Back of German First Line and Blow Up Dugouts and Other German Works.

REASON FOR BELIEF THAT MEMBERS OF RAINBOW DIVISION WERE IN RAID

Perfect Barrage Fire Blazes Way For Attacking Americans—Valuable Papers Captured From Trenches Deserted by Fleeing Huns.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, MARCH 10.—(ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE).—AMERICAN TROOPS, CO-OPERATING WITH THE FRENCH, HAVE CARRIED OUT THREE RAIDS OPPOSITE THE AMERICAN SECTOR IN LORRAINE. TWO OF THE RAIDS WERE EXECUTED SIMULTANEOUSLY LAST NIGHT. THE AMERICANS SWEEPED PAST THE GERMAN FIRST LINES AND PENETRATED TO THE ENEMY'S SECOND LINE, SIX HUNDRED YARDS BACK.

The two simultaneous raids, one northwest and one northeast of—(deleted)—were made after intense artillery preparation lasting four hours, in which the German positions were leveled.

At midnight two forces, each one of—(deleted)—with small French forces on their flanks, moved on the German objectives behind a creeping barrage, each on a front of six hundred yards. When the Americans reached the enemy's first line the barrage was lifted so as to box in the German position at both points. The men dropped into the enemy trenches, expecting a hand to hand fight, but found the Germans had fled. Continuing the advance, the Americans went forward six hundred yards to the second German line. All the time American machine gunners were firing on each flank of the two parties to prevent the enemy from undertaking flanking operations. One French flanking party found two wounded Germans in a dugout and took them prisoners. The Americans found none.

The Americans remained for forty-five minutes in the enemy line. They found excellent concrete dugouts which they blew up, and also brought back a large quantity of material and valuable papers.

While they were in the enemy lines, German artillery began a vigorous counter-barrage. It was quickly silenced by American heavy and light artillery, which hurled large quantities of gas shells on the batteries.

An American trench mortar battery, the homes of whose men is in—(deleted)—participated in the artillery action preceding the raids, helping to level the enemy position. The artillery, both light and heavy, was manned by men whose homes are in—(deleted)—

Soon after these two raids had been carried out, the Americans made another at a point further along the line to the right. They went over the top after artillery preparations of forty-five minutes, in which the enemy positions attacked were obliterated.

In this place the dugouts were found to have been constructed principally of logs. Engineers accompanying the raiding party completed the artillery's work of destruction. The American infantrymen who took part in this raid are from—(deleted)—and engineers from—(deleted)—

The raids were carried out skillfully and but for the fact that the Germans fled, more prisoners doubtless would have been taken.

AMERICAN GAS SHELLS KILL MANY.

The American gas shells are believed to have caused many casualties among the enemy. No Americans are unaccounted for.

A cablegram received Monday from Major Rell G. Allen, announcing his safety, may indicate that he and his troops were in one of the raids made upon the German trenches. However, this has not been established, as the censor of the news dispatches has carefully deleted names and places which would establish the identity of the attacking units.

SLASHES THROAT AND WRIST WITH RAZOR---MAY DIE

Neil Daugherty, 70, Attempts Suicide With Razor, and Half Hundred Stitches Are Necessary to Close Gaping Wounds—Severs Trachea and Arteries

Despondent over financial matters Neil Daugherty, aged 70, residing on Rawlins street, this city, used a razor in repeatedly slashing his throat and left wrist, early Monday morning, in an effort to end his life, and as a result of the injuries inflicted and consequent loss of blood, little hope is entertained for his recovery.

The despondent man had withdrawn to an outbuilding at his home, where he slashed his left wrist, and then inflicted eight or ten deep gashes across his throat, severing an artery or two, and cutting through the trachea. The horrible gashes extended from ear to ear and when he was discovered a few moments later by members of the family, he was very weak from loss of blood, and in a semi-conscious condition. He was found about 7:30 o'clock.

A physician was summoned and an ambulance soon removed the man to the Fayette hospital, where the wounds were properly cared for, it required some fifty stitches to close the wounds.

The heavy loss of blood left the man in a very critical condition, and little or no hope is held for his recovery.

For many years the man has been a familiar figure about various pool rooms of the city having been employed as janitor and helper and part of the time worked as a day laborer.

SUCCUMBS TO STROKE WHILE ON AUTO RIDE

Mrs. R. S. Sanderson is in a critical condition at her home on S. North following a stroke of paralysis which occurred while on an auto ride in the Bloomingburg vicinity, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanderson were with a party of friends trying out their new car for the first time. Fortunately they were quite near Bloomingburg when Mrs. Sanderson was stricken.

She was taken into Dr. E. H. McDonald's office in Bloomingburg and Dr. H. L. Stitt, her physician, at once summoned from this city. Later in the afternoon she was brought to her home in the McCoy ambulance.

A little over two years ago Mrs. Sanderson suffered a similar stroke, which was more severe than the one of Sunday. She recovered from it remarkably and has been in fairly good health the past year, so that her family and numerous friends are encouraged to hope for her recovery.

A trained nurse arrived from Cincinnati on the late train Sunday night and Mrs. Sanderson's mother, Mrs. John McKee, and sister, Mrs. Frank Bateman and family reached here from Middletown Monday morning.

MAJOR ALLEN IS THOUGHT TO HAVE BEEN IN BATTLE

Mrs. Rell G. Allen Monday morning received the following cablegram from her husband, Major Allen, in France:

"Well. Safe. Sound. RELL."

It is believed that he has just returned to some rest camp after taking part in fighting at the front, and that he supposed reports of the encounter would be sent back to the United States, giving the name of the unit engaged, and that he wished to inform his relatives here that he was safe, to prevent unnecessary worry on their part.

While the cablegram carries only the information that he is well and safe reading "between the lines" indicates that he has been where there was fighting of a severe nature.

Major Allen commands the First Battalion of his regiment, and the first battalion does not include Company M of this city.

Some local punster has declared that the new name for the French Measles should be "Liberty" Measles.

The machine had been parked with other cars and was stolen sometime between the hours of seven and ten o'clock.

Monday morning a car believed to have been the stolen Ford, passed through Jeffersonville, apparently headed toward this city, but while a lookout was maintained in this city, the missing car was not located, nor did such a car come into the city from the direction of Jeffersonville, indicating the man had chosen another route.

Toy Ships Tips to the Foe

The ingenuity of German spys in giving tips is positively uncanny.

Their latest device to give information to the German government is presumably through cleverly made toy ships, which are being manufactured in an Ohio city, the manufacturer a Cleveland resident, once a German subject.

United States agents are now engaged in a probe of these models which are thought to be intended for the German government to be furnished commanders of U-boats.

The toy ships are exact miniature models of United States war vessels and transports, even to the slant of the funnels, and are supplied with electric propelling machinery, complete even to storage batteries.

By studying the model vessels submarine commanders would be able to recognize the ships of which the toys are copies, notwithstanding attempts to disguise such ships by camouflage and other devices.

It does not seem probable that such an exact reproduction of our war vessels in the form of toys would be made except as tips to the foe. Their desirability as mere toys would be just as great without such perfection of detail and elaborate equipment. There is certainly plenty of ground to cause a probe by U. S. agents.

The day of the German toy is rapidly passing, but if anything would complete its utter destruction it would be the possibility of such a use for toys—even the block of wood carved to the diabolical purposes of the Kaiser.

There was a time when "made in Germany" was the mark which gave standing to the toy—but not now. No American wants anything bearing Germany's trade mark.

After all there was quite a little camouflage about Germany's boasted toys. Other countries can rival Germany in the making of toys but they fell into the habit of taking Germany at her own valuation. In our own country smoke is pouring from the stacks of many a toy factory, turning out a high grade of toys—there is one right in our own town making the finest toy furniture on the market and shipping it from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

Japan has for sometime been racing Germany and has captured a good part of the toy trade. American children can have just as good a time without German toys.

A Territorial Bargain

Fifty years ago when Alaska spelled to the people of the United States little more than a wild, barren country, luring the adventurous with its promise of gold, but to others merely a land of snow, icebergs and polar bears, it was hard for President Andrew Johnson and Secretary of State Seward to explain the wisdom of its purchase.

Even half a century ago there were bargain counters, but that little "price tag of $7,200,000" which Russia had fastened to Alaska didn't look to the people of the United States as if the "land of gold" belonged in that class. But it is turning out that Uncle Sam wasn't such a bad buyer after all and has picked up one of the biggest bargains ever on the territorial market.

We know that the gold, copper and other mines of Alaska have as yet hardly been touched; we know that this vast country is a store house of wealth and in the grandeur of its scenic beauty offers great inducement to the prospector and the tourist, but we are only just awakening to the possibilities of our immense northern territory as a factor in solving the food problem of the future. It is hard to believe that a modern flour mill in that far off north is now grinding Alaska wheat, that Alaska's reindeer ranches are destined to play a big part in settling the meat question for the United States and that the fisheries of the north coast waters will be able to furnish practically all the sea food for the entire country within the next century.

Yet these are the predictions of the posted ones—at present there are about 70,000 reindeer in Alaska and the meat is pronounced delicious—as good and as tender as beef by those who have sampled it.

The fisheries have proved a revelation to visitors. Large fortunes are being made in the salmon fisheries and the halibut industry is growing rapidly, while Alaskan waters produce as large or larger quantities of herring every year as Sweden imported before the war. Many cold storage plants are being erected.

Rich as is the land in gold it is also rich in agricultural lands and splendid forests. Vegetables of all kinds may be raised in abundance and soil development promises to make farming as important a part of Alaska's wealth as the opening up of her mineral deposits.

The claim is made that each year more men are taking their families to Alaska and locating homesteads, knowing that they can educate their children in Alaskan schools, feed them with Alaskan meat and vegetables and pay their bills with Alaskan gold. It is estimated that there are 100,000 square miles suitable for farming and grazing alone, with a scant 65,000 people living there.

A marvelous store house is Alaska, offering unlimited resources, and Uncle Sam picked her up from the Russian bargain counter for the marked down price of $7,200,000.

Poetry For Today

NOT MUCH OF A MAN

He may be as rich as a millionaire,
Or a scion of noble name,
No sage with his wisdom may compare—
He may shine in the blaze of fame.
He may be the most marvelous thing
In sight
That our humble eyes can scan,
But if his heart is not in our fight
He isn't much of a man!

He may be as square as the day is long
And just in his every deal,
He may seek the right and eschew the wrong
And to gods of all ages kneel.
He may be a saint in his holy ways,
Soul pure since his life began,
But if out of his country's war he stays,
He isn't much of a man!!

A man may be true to his child and wife,
And loyal to all mankind,
He may do no ill in his whole long life,
And yet, to his horror, find,
When no patriot fervor floods his breast,
At the threat of a foeman clan,
He lacks in that which, of all, is best,
He isn't much of a man!!

HOW JOE FOUND HIMSELF

CHAPTER NINE.

Joe's mother had told him that Irma would be over that night, and all through dinner Joe had kept an eye on the front door, longing for her to come in. And now, as he was helping his mother carry out the dishes, she came in waving her knitting bag in surprise at seeing Joe.

As they sat and talked, Irma and Joe's mother busily knitting, Joe found himself looking at Irma more closely than he ever had before, and realized she was a mighty pretty girl. They had been kids and had grown up together but Joe had never thought much of her one way or the other before. He had always taken her to parties and dances as a matter of course and now Joe remembered that she never had cared much for them but had gone just because Joe had asked her.

"What a blind boob I've been," he thought to himself as he sat holding her skein of yarn. "Just for whom is this sweater that you are making?" he asked her.

"Well now, foolish, and just whom do you suppose it's for, but you? And there's a helmet here in my bag I just finished. Come here 'til I see if it fits."

Joe never alluded to the night he had slammed out of Irma's house—he found that Irma was knitting a muffler for Mel Houston. For Joe was ashamed of himself and was trying to forget it.

That night as he saw Irma home their talk was about his life in camp. How he was studying and working so he wouldn't always be a private. "I never liked any job before," he told her, "but I do this one, and I'm going to climb up as far as they'll let me. We don't know just when we are to leave, soon I think—but, I'll be back girlie and do you think there is any use of my hoping you'll be waiting for me?"

As he turned and looked at Irma the moonlight shone full in her face and Joe saw tears in her eyes as she clung to him and murmured: "Yes, Joe, I'll be waiting for you."

TWO MEN ARE HELD ON SERIOUS CHARGE

Lee Underwood, married, of Jeffersonville, and Harley Dettly were Saturday placed under arrest on affidavits charging them with contributing to the delinquency of Lillian Maxwell and Sylvia DeValt, the latter a ward of the county who has been under the charge of the children's home, but who recently left the place where she had been working and came to this city.

The two girls were at the Christian Union church when the men induced them to take a ride with them, according to the story related by the girls. This was Thursday night of last week, and the girls were taken by the men to New Holland, thence to London and Springfield, reaching this city Saturday.

Monday the two men were arraigned before Probate Judge Frank M. Allen, and Dettly was fined $100 and given 30 days in the workhouse, while arrangements were made to take up Underwood's case later in the day.

POSTOFFICE KEPT BUSY DELIVERING WAR SAVINGS STAMPS

The entire force of employees of the Washington postoffice has been kept working hard in addition to regular duties, during the past several days, to deliver the war savings stamps purchased during the recent campaign, and the extent of the work may be realized when it is known that more than $22,000 worth of the stamps were delivered on the last four days of last week, $8,500 of the amount being delivered on Saturday, when lines of persons stood in wait while the work of filling out the certificates went forward.

Postmaster Murry asks those who have not received the stamps ordered to be patient, as the work will be pushed forward just as fast as it is possible to do so, and all stamps delivered to the purchaser within a short time.

COUNTY-WIDE ORGANIZATION FOR SEED CORN

County Testing Station to be Provided to Aid in Selection of Proper Corn for Planting.

Each Township Represented in Organization of Vital Importance to All Farmers.

At last some practical plan has been arranged to aid Fayette farmers in making proper tests of seed corn and to bring to light available seed all over the county.

This was done at the big mass meeting of farmers, held at Memorial Hall Saturday afternoon when a county-wide organization was effected for the purpose of giving the seed corn shortage practical attention, by establishing a central testing station in this city where farmers may bring their corn for testing, and the government will bear the expense of the man in charge, while other necessary expenses will be provided for by a small fee for making tests.

The organization is composed of the following three county officers: Howard Hagler, president; F. M. Kennedy, vice president, and Howard Allen, secretary-treasurer. The following men were appointed chairmen of their respective townships: W. W. Wilson, Union; Chas. Sollars, Wayne; Willard Everhart, Perry; Ralph Roush, Green; Elmer Rowe, Concord; Harry Mark, Jasper; F. E. Eicheberger, Jefferson; O. A. Kiever, Paint; J. E. Hopkins, Madison; A. R. Stokesbury, Marion.

The chief address of the afternoon was made by W. F. Bruce, corn expert from the Extension Department Ohio State University, who outlined the plan which was later adopted by the farmers. He declared that every ear should be tested before planted; that "eye tests" made by examining the heart of the grain by the aid of the eye, were unreliable and should not be depended upon.

Mr. Bruce declared that more than 50,000 acres of corn would be planted in Fayette county this year, and that data obtained indicated there were some 4,000 bushels of 1916 corn in the county, and that tests indicated enough of the 1917 crop could be obtained for seed to furnish ample for every farmer, but exhaustive tests would necessarily be required to pick the good from the bad corn. He advised sending out of the county for seed, declaring most of the corn belt had the same trouble with early frosts as in this community. He stated that experiments had shown there is nothing in the idea of drying out the corn this year before testing it, and finding higher germination as a result.

The committee named will hold a meeting in the near future and decide upon its course of action. Meanwhile all farmers in the county are awaiting their action, as comparatively little time remains for the widespread tests to be made.

It is planned to use the third floor of Memorial Hall for the testing work and hundreds of tests could be made at one time, as there is a vast floor space available for the work.

Messrs. Cooley and Shook, who have charge of Fayette and Madison counties in regard to the state aid in selecting seed, will be active in rendering all possible assistance.

MISS SUSANNE LANIUS DIES IN THE EAST

Mrs. J. H. Bliss received the sad word Sunday of the death of Miss Susanne Lanus, niece of Mrs. Bliss, Sunday morning in Philadelphia, at the home of Mrs. Sarah Schrader.

For the past six months Miss Lanus had been in ill health, but had gotten better, and had gone East to visit Mrs. Schrader, formerly of Chillicothe.

About two weeks ago she suffered a relapse, pleuresy developed, from which she seemed to rally, but during the last few days her condition grew constantly worse.

When Mr. Bliss received the word, he left at once for Philadelphia and arrived there a few hours before she died. Her brother, Mr. Charles Lanus of Galesburg, Ill., was also with her when the end came.

Miss Lanus was a member of a very well known Chillicothe family, and came to this city from her home town. She made many friends, who will learn with deep regret of her death.

The body will arrive in Chillicothe Tuesday morning, and funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock from the Walnut street M. E. church.

Mr. Bliss accompanied the body back to Chillicothe, and Mrs. Bliss goes over to Chillicothe this evening. The two daughters, Miss Mary Hannah and Florence Bliss join their mother Tuesday for the funeral. Mr. William Campbell will also attend the funeral.

KEEP TO THE RIGHT ON THE SIDEWALK

The demand for less "jay walking" on sidewalks is beginning to be felt in all cities, where there is difficulty of the crowds using the sidewalks, and usually ordinances have been passed to compel observance of the practice and thus prevent congested sidewalks and facilitate the movements of pedestrians who are in a hurry.

In this city the demand for "keep to the right" on the sidewalks is increasing and there is need of some concerted action to insure free passageways on the sidewalks during the crowded days.

The practice of holding hour long visits in the middle of the sidewalk is a common one in Washington, and this is invariably done to the great inconvenience of the other pedestrians, many of whom are in a hurry to get from one point to another.

"Keep to the right" is an order that may soon be placed in effect in the city to insure something like order prevailing on the main sidewalks on busy days.

THOUGHT END OF WORLD AT HAND

The story is told of an old colored woman in Bloomingburg, who, in stepping from her home the other night during the vivid display of the aurora borealis, was so overcome with fright that she staggered back into the house and sought her Bible, from which she read for a long time, believing that the end of the world was at hand.

"I was sure the end had come, 'cause the Good Book done declare that the world will be destroyed with fire" she explained to a neighbor.

NATIONAL SPEAKER DELIVERS ADDRESSES THIS CITY, THURSDAY

Widespread interest will be stirred by the announcement that Mrs. William Ogden Wade, a speaker of national calibre and sent out directly by the Government, will deliver an address at the High School auditorium Thursday night, at eight o'clock.

Mrs. Wade is one of the national speakers now touring the country to present food facts for the United States Food Administration. The information that she brings is of vital importance and the latest that is authentic on the world's food situation. Every citizen in Fayette county should hear her.

Although privileged to live in ease on a ranch in southern California or a home in New York, Mrs. William Ogden Wade is doing her bit to help win the war by touring the country, speaking for food conservation. She is a typical American woman both by inheritance and training. Mrs. Wade has given much time of late years to the study of Americanization of immigrants and has written and spoken much on this theme. One of her stories, "The Three Gateways," based on the Americanization work in Los Angeles has aroused much interest. She has spoken much on women's war work under the auspices of Women's Committee, Council of National Defense.

Afternoon Meeting.

On Thursday afternoon at 2:30 at the Federated Club rooms in the Y. M. C. A. annex the Woman's Committee Council of National Defense will be addressed by Mrs. Wade.

Every woman in the county is eligible to this branch of woman's war work and is invited to attend this meeting, meet Mrs. Wade and learn the necessity of food conservation.

RED CROSS DRIVE POSTPONED UNTIL WEEK OF MAY 20

Fayette County's Quota Will Probably be About $35,000, to be Obtained for General War Work of Red Cross.

The second Red Cross war fund drive for $100,000,000, originally scheduled for the week beginning May 6, has been postponed until the week beginning May 20, R. F. Grant, drive director for the Lake Division announced today.

Fayette county's quota will probably be near $35,000.

The change of dates is made in accordance with instructions from the American Red Cross Council at Washington. Fear that it might detract even slightly from the forthcoming liberty loan campaign prompted the Red Cross to postpone the date of its drive for two weeks.

Mr. Grant today also announced the names of the men who will serve as state drive managers in the Lake Division.

Charles F. Coffin, vice president and general manager of the Indiana State Life Insurance Co. of Indianapolis, is to be the Indiana drive manager. His state has been given a quota of $2,100,000. Clarence Stanley, of Indianapolis, will be Indiana's associate war fund manager. Mr. Coffin and Mr. Dyer will have the co-operation of A. F. Bentley, who is in charge of the Lake Division's Indiana offices.

Charles L. Bradley of Cleveland has consented to serve as the Ohio manager. He is already at work on his organization plans as his state has a quota of $6,400,000, the largest state quota in the Lake Division.

John R. Downing, vice president and cashier of the Phoenix and Third National Bank of Lexington, has accepted the Kentucky state managership. S. W. Calder and W. O. Davis of the Kentucky River Coal Corporation will assist Mr. Downing. Kentucky's quota is $900,000.

The action of the War Fund Council in postponing the drive fixes the date of the second campaign just eleven months after the first drive, which was carried on the week of June 18, 1917. More than $100,000,000 was contributed in that drive. Contributions plus interest brought the total receipts up to $105,099,257. Of this amount $17,006,121 was refunded to chapters for local relief work.

The balance of $77,721,918 has been appropriated, leaving a balance available for appropriations of $10,371,217. France has been the beneficiary of American Red Cross appropriations to the sum of more than $50,000,000.

M'LAIN OIL CO. INCREASES STOCK

The Board of Directors of the Thad McLain Oil Co., held a meeting last night in the Hotel Martins parlor. It was decided that the company meet all requirements of the Blue Sky law and it was decided to increase the capital stock from $50,000 to $300,000.

C. L. Ruch of Lancaster was retained as manager of the company and will return to Texas next week to locate No. 7 well. The company now has a production of 41 barrels of oil a day, with a splendid outlook.—Lancaster Eagle.

Quite a number of the stockholders and officers of the company reside in this city and county, and are hopeful of "striking it rich" in the Texas oil fields in the near future.

WON'T WORK

(By American Press)

Chillicothe, O., March 11.—The Amish and the Mennonites, Camp Sherman's most ardent advocates of peace have refused to work in the hospitals or till the soil. The disaffection in the ranks of the pacifists is said to have been brought about over a disagreement as to how far they might go in work on the cantonment of a noncombatant nature. Two elders of the Mennonites were here recently to urge the members of their faith to do such work as might be asked of them in the hospital or on the land in the camp. Under the influence of the leaders the men were inclined to go to work. Meanwhile, officers say, the Amish have done their utmost to dissuade the Mennonites from doing any work whatever. The two groups of persistent pacifists, who were sent here from the drafted men, principally from communities in northwestern Ohio, have consistently declined to do work of any kind or to accept pay from the government.

CHILDREN KILLED

(By American Press)

Winchester, Ky., March 11.—Twelve persons were killed, 10 of whom were children; 23 persons so severely injured it was found necessary to remove them to the hospital, and about 30 others less seriously hurt here, when the walls of a burned building adjoining a moving picture theater collapsed, crushing in its roof. The majority of the injured, as well as those not so seriously hurt, were children, several hundred of whom were crowded into the moving picture theater when the crash came. The wall which collapsed was also used as one wall of the theater, but projected considerably above the roof of the theater building.

"TANLAC MAN" GIVES DETAILS ABOUT RADIUM

Tells Why This Product Is So Effective in Cases of Rheumatism and Describes How It Works.

Rheumatism was believed to be incurable for many years before the discovery of radium. And even the discovery of radium has helped only a comparatively small number of the thousands of men and women who suffer from rheumatism because the radium treatment has been enormously expensive.

Now, however, anybody can try radium at home. The manufacturers of Tanlac, America's most famous tonic, have placed a product for rheumatism on the market and it contains radium.

Tanlac Rheumatic Treatment, under which name the new product is being introduced, is being explained to folks in the larger cities by the "Tanlac Man," the unique character who, more than three years ago, made the rounds of the larger towns explaining Tanlac.

The Tanlac Man at Cincinnati said with regard to Tanlac Rheumatic Treatment.

"Rheumatism is apparently a mysterious disease. It comes and goes with no reason or regularity and sharp, shooting pains in the limbs and other parts of the body become more frequent until it is chronic. Then swelling sets in and often victims of rheumatism are so crippled by the pains they can hardly move about.

"As a matter of fact, however, rheumatism is a simple disease. It is generally accepted in medical circles that it is caused by an excess of uric acid in the blood. Uric acid is simply a natural poison. It travels about the circulatory system of the blood and is liable to settle in any one point. This causes rheumatism.

"To benefit cases of rheumatism it is necessary to treat the blood. If the blood is free of impurities there can be no rheumatism. Radium enriches and purifies the blood and in this way over comes rheumatism. It is considered one of the most efficient curatives agencies for rheumatism known to medical science."

TWISTER HITS OHIO COUNTY

Toledo, March 11.—Five persons were killed, scores injured and scores of homes, hundreds of barns and out-buildings demolished by the tornado that struck northwestern Ohio Saturday night. Property damage is estimated at from $1,000,000 to $3,000,000.

No serious damage was done in any of the larger towns, most of the destruction having been reported from country districts. The tornado began its mad career in Van Wert county, on the Ohio-Indiana state line, and then traveled in a northeasterly direction, lessening in its intensity until it died out east of Tiffin. Towns suffering the most severely were Van Wert, Middlepoint, Convoys, Lima, Deshler, Hamler, Continental, Ottawa, Napoleon, Holgate, Miller City and Tiffin.

The known dead: Rexford Lye, 12, Middlepoint, killed when barn was demolished while he was feeding cattle; Harry Perry, 8, three miles west of Van Wert; Mrs. Charles Grier, Middlepoint; Mrs. William Geyer, 72, Van Wert county; Pearl Bott, 26, farmer of near Cloverdale, south of Continental.

The tornado first struck at Middlepoint, traveling northeast across Harrison, Pleasant and Union townships. The twister would swoop down, wreck a farmhouse, or possibly two or three, and then jump over four or five miles before doing more damage. Reports received here say that Continental and Holgate were not wiped out, but that much property damage was done there by the tornado.

Hundreds of farmers from northwestern Ohio and eastern Indiana motored to Van Wert county to give aid to farmers who suffered loss. The organized searching parties rounded up live stock, which had become loose and wandered off.

Big boulders weighing a ton were found in the roads at several points, having been lifted from fields or creeks and carried many yards. In Union township a farmhouse was lifted from its foundation and was carried into an adjoining field. A heavy stove in this house was carried half a mile by the twister.

The storm played queer pranks. Hundreds of chickens were entirely castrated and left without a feather. One chicken, with only a few feathers left, was blown high in the air and landed on a telephone post, from which it was rescued.

Damage estimated at $200,000 was done in Middlepoint and Hancock county. Small buildings were wrecked, roofs of many business blocks were carried away, store windows were shattered, trees blown down and all business in general was suspended for several hours.

At Bascom, several miles west of Tiffin, the car barns of the Tiffin, Fostoria and Eastern Interurban company were demolished, six big cars in the barns being damaged. Poles along the traction line were blown down.

REVIVAL SERVICES AT AT CHURCH OF CHRIST

The revival services started off in fine shape at the Church of Christ yesterday. There was a good crowd at the morning service and the house was well filled at the evening service, which was preceded by a fifteen-minute song service.

The song by the quartet was a splendid addition to the service and much enjoyed.

The minister, G. E. Groves, spoke from the text: "Facing the Fact that There is a God." Tonight at 7:30 he will speak on the topic: "What is the Bible, and Where Did We Get it?"

Hear the 15-minute song service. Something special every night. Services all week at 7:30 each evening.

HEAVY WIND DOES MUCH DAMAGE IN CITY AND COUNTY

Roofs Damaged, Fences Blown Down, Windows Destroyed and Much Other Damage Inflicted by Wind of Great Violence.

Following a heavy wind and rain storm Saturday night, Fayette county was lashed by a furious gale throughout Saturday night, when the wind is believed to have passed 60 miles per hour and caused a great deal of property damage, as well as resulting in sleepless nights for a host of citizens who could not rest while their homes were being rocked by a blast that threatened to crush in the windows or carry away part of the roof.

The wind accompanying the rain is believed to have caused more damage than the howling gale which lasted throughout the night, and was probably the tail end of the same cyclonic storm which struck Van Wert and inflicted heavy property damage and snuffed out several lives.

In this city many windows were broken by the force of the wind, and many roofs suffered more or less. The Masonic Temple was damaged somewhat by leakage and a broken window. The flag was torn from the staff. Much fencing, and several shed roofs went down before the gale in this city.

In Bloomingburg the steeple of the Presbyterian church was twisted out of plumb during the storm, while four miles north of Bloomingburg on the Danville pike, the Elmer Baughn barn, a new structure, was partly unroofed. In the Yatesville community the storm did a great deal of damage in the way of scattering fodder, blowing down fences and damaging roofs. Similar damage occurred in other parts of the county.

Cornmeal Fish Balls.
2 c cold, white cornmeal mush; 1 egg; 1 T. fat; 1 c. shredded codfish. Pick over the codfish and soak it to remove salt. If necessary. Combine the ingredients and drop by spoonfuls into hot fat. Pour the mixture into a pan, having it about 1/2 inch thick. Bake 25 minutes in a rather quick oven. Cut into squares and serve hot. This batter may be baked in muffin pans.

Spice Cake Without Eggs.
1 1/4 c. fat; 2 3/4 c. sour milk; 1 1/2 t. cinnamon; 1 1/4 t. nutmeg; 3 1/4 c. sugar; 1 1/2 c. soda; 1 1/4 t. allspice; 1 1/2 c. flour; 1 1/2 c. raisins. Cream the fat. Add the sugar gradually.

HOW HUNS FORCE WOMEN TO LABOR

(Associated Press Correspondence)
French Front, February 25.—That compulsory labor for the German conquerors is imposed on French women and girls, as well as on the male inhabitants of the invaded districts of France, is shown in the order issued by General Volkers of the 9th German army corps, recently stationed in the vicinity of Cambrai. The text of the order is as follows:

"This group of troops will shortly have need of 1,000 men for various works. An increase of production must be exacted from these workers, and groups of women must be employed whenever possible, especially for work in the fields. Those in charge of these workers must bear in mind that at the present moment our German women are taking the places of male workers and they should not lose sight of the principle that no French woman or girl ought to be allowed to do less work than our countrywomen in the interior."
